E-NEWS LETTER

Children's Day on 14th November was celebrated as Sports Day at school. Students tuned up with their PT dress and participated in various sports events. There was a ceremonial march-past class-wise in the field, followed by different sporting events.

Some senior students served as cheerleaders to maintain a fun atmosphere with music

The victory stand was there to honour the winners with a take of prizes.

Parents of Early Intervention Unit students were involved in the class activities.

Students were engaged in the sensory classes with exposure to different sensory stimuli.

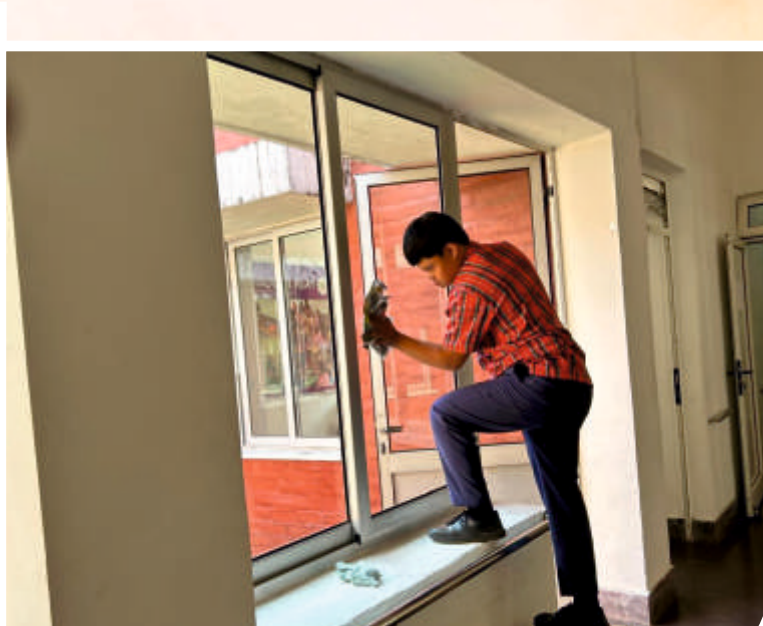

Craft class is an enjoyable class for students.

Senior students were involved in the table-top class activities, vocational work, i.e. baking, tea packaging, and kitchen work.

Some senior students were engaged in cleaning & mopping in their ADL work.

The therapy units, which include Multi-Sensory Therapy, Occupational Therapy, Music Therapy, and Speech Therapy, were actively engaged based on the specific needs of the students.

Students' self-care activities were focused on dressing skills & feeding

Play is an important part of students' curriculum, i.e. structured format as well as free play in the field.
